RPHA SERIES

Performance REINVENTED

The RPHA Series, which includes the RPHA 11, RPHA 90S and RPHA 70, delivers on the promise of class-leading light weight through cutting-edge technologies that lead the helmet industry. All three helmets feature HJC's Premium Integrated Matrix (PIM) Plus construction, which incorporates four different materials: Carbon fiber, Aramid, Fiberglass and Organic non-woven fabric (ultra-highmolecular polyethylene) to create a unique woven blend that is both remarkably strong and lighter than conventional helmet materials. PIM Plus construction results in a shell weight that is significantly lighter than competing designs for greater comfort.

To create those modern, complex shell designs, HJC employed CAD design and rapid-prototyping technology, along with extensive testing of multiple prototypes within HJC's state-of-the-art wind tunnel. The net result is carefully controlled aerodynamic airflow around the helmet for a smooth and quiet riding experience along with superior, well-controlled flow-through ventilation for additional rider comfort.

P.I.M. PLUS

Reinforcement materials, including Carbon and Carbon-Glass Hybrid fabric, provide enhanced Shock-Resistant performance, more comfort, and lightness of helmet.
